Benefit Synopsis for Professional Employees FISCAL YEAR 2009 - 10

NOTE: This synopsis is intended to brief prospective and existing College employees of the fringe benefits available at Western Wyoming Community College. Details of the benefits itemized below may be obtained from the Human Resources Office.

1. Social Security: Those Eligible: All WWCC Employees It is mandatory that all WWCC employees, except student employees, participate in the Federal Social Security Program. In calendar year 2009, the College contributes 7.65% and the employee contributes 7.65% of gross salary, with a ceiling of $106,800 on the OASDI portion.
2. Retirement: Those Eligible: All Full-Time and Selected Part-Time Employees Western Wyoming Community College participates in the State of Wyoming Retirement Program. The College pays the employer contribution at the rate of 5.68% of gross salary and also pays the employee contribution at the rate of 5.57% of gross salary for all full time employees and for all part-time employees who serve in at least a half time capacity. Other designated classes of part-time employees receive limited retirement benefits. Please see Human Resources Office for details. The total percentage rate (11.25%) is applied to the total gross salary as no ceiling prevails in the Wyoming System. An employee becomes vested and is entitled to receive retirement benefits after four years of participation in the system and after reaching the age of fifty (50). At any time following termination from College employment, and from the retirement system, an employee may request a full refund of the employee contribution, plus accrued interest.

The monthly retirement benefits are calculated using one of several formulas approved by the Wyoming Retirement System.

Employees serving in at least a half-time capacity may, at their option, elect to contribute to an optional retirement plan, T.I.A.A.-C.R.E.F. The College contributes 11.25% of gross salary into this retirement plan as well.

3. Worker's Compensation: Those Eligible: All WWCC Employees Western Wyoming Community College participates in the State Worker's Compensation Program. The College contributes approximately 1.83% of salaries paid those individuals whose positions are classified an extra-hazardous to a fund from which benefits may be paid to any qualified employee who is injured while on the job.

The College also has worker's compensation coverage for non-extra hazardous employees through a private insurance carrier. Contact your supervisor if you are injured on the job.

4. Sick Leave: Those Eligible: Full-Time Employees All eligible employees are granted fifteen (15) working days of sick leave per year, accumulative to 120 working days. Sick leave is accrued at the rate of 1.25 days per month. Also, employees may join the College Sick Leave Bank. See Human Resources Office for details. The College also abides by the Family Medical Leave Act.
5. Group Life Insurance: Those Eligible: Full-Time Employees and Selected Part-Time Employees

Group Life Insurance
Age	Group Life Benefit	Accidental Death and Dismemberment
Under 60	$50,000	$20,000
60 but less than 65	$32,000	$13,000
65 but less than 70	$21,000	$9,000
