

BOARD POWERS AND DUTIES

The Board of Trustees has certain powers and duties as enumerated in the Wyoming Community College Code.

See following page for procedure.

Approved June 10, 1989
Reformatted April 29, 2010

BOARD POWERS AND DUTIES

The Board of Trustees has certain powers and duties as enumerated in the Wyoming Community College Code.

Powers of the Board

To sue and be sued; to hold and convey property; to employ legal counsel; to provide bookstores, recreational facilities, parking lots, or other necessary facilities, and fix rates for use of the same; to issue general obligation bonds or revenue bonds; to establish and collect student fees for services and use of facilities; to collect tuition; to enter into agreements with public or private agencies for services needed by the College; to insure against loss; to fill vacancies on the Board and to provide for removal of Board Members; to call special meetings without formal notice; to contribute to the financial support of the Commission; to employ an assistant treasurer; and, to confer degrees and certificates.

All decision making authority related to the operation of the Western Wyoming Community College District which is not specifically granted to the Community College Commission is reserved to the District.

Duties of the Board

To prescribe and enforce rules and regulations for the College; prescribe requirements for graduation; adopt a seal; report revenues and expenses annually; submit reports to the Community College Commission; require the treasurer and Assistant Treasurer to give bond; appoint a chief administrative officer; prepare a budget and present the Board of County Commissioner an estimate of the tax levy; control and disburse all monies received from any source for the College; keep a record of official acts of the Board and for all warrants issued; conduct elections.

Approved June 10, 1989
Revised July 17, 2002
Reformatted April 29, 2010